§ PROCEDURE 26

Defendants.

Pursuant to this Court's Order for Disclosure and without waiving any claims of privilege, work produced protection or other grounds for nondisclosure, new Plaintiffs, by their undersigned counsel, hereby makes their Initial Disclosure to Defendant.

Plaintiffs make these disclosures based upon the information reasonably available to them at this time. Plaintiff reserved the right to amend, supplement, and modify these disclosures as the case progresses pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or as otherwise permitted by this Court's case management rules or Order of this Court.

1. Documents created or maintained by the Plaintiff recording time worked.

Response: None yet but reserve the right to amend. It is assumed that Delia's maintained records of employment for Plaintiffs.

2.. Documents created or maintained by the Plaintiff recording wages or other compensation paid or unpaid by the Defendant. (This does not include personal tax returns or tax informational documents.)

Response: None yet but reserve the right to amend. It is assumed that Delia's maintained records of employment for Plaintiffs.

3 If the Plaintiff reported or complained internally to the Defendant about the FLSA And RICO Claim(s), the reports or complaint and any response that the Defendant provided to the Plaintiff.

Response: N/A Plaintiff's had no knowledge about employment law or FLSA wage and hour. These people were all from Mexico and had no knowledge of any of the laws that would protect them. Plaintiffs thought that pay deductions were actually going into the fake social security number created by Delia

4. Any offer letters, employment agreements, or compensation agreements for the Plaintiff.

Response: None yet but reserve the right to amend. It is assumed that Delia's maintained records of employment for Plaintiffs.

5. Any sworn statements from individuals with information relevant to the FLSA Claim and RICO(s).

Response: In the process of getting them. I will submit them during discovery.

6. Documents that the Plaintiff relies on to support a claim of willful violation.

Response: Deductions from paychecks when they were given fake social security numbers. Fake social security numbers and fake permanent resident cards.

Wrong overtime pay given when they worked a lot more hours.

7. The start and end dates for the FLSA and RICO Claim(s).

Response: From the time they were hired and during overtime pay. This was a sweat shop and human trafficking.

8. The Plaintiff's title or position and a brief description of the Plaintiff's job duties for the relevant time period.

Response: See below

9. The basis for the FLSA Claim(s) and RICO State and Federal Response: These people were treated like slaves, and this is human trafficking. Delia's This is all based on affidavits and listening to the Plaintiffs. We are in the process of getting affidavits from the new plaintiffs. Delia would give employees fake social security cards and fake permanent resident cards, then Delia would deduct withholdings knowing that the social security cards were fake.

10. A computation of each category of damages claimed by the Plaintiff, including a) applicable dates,
b) amounts of claimed unpaid wages, and
c) the method used for computation (including applicable rates and hours).

Response: Still working on the new plaintiffs from San Antonio. It is assumed that Delia's maintained records of employment for Plaintiffs.

11. The names of the Plaintiff's supervisors during the relevant time period.

Response: Still getting info and will provide that during discovery. It is assumed that Delia's maintained records of employment for Plaintiffs.

12. If the Plaintiff reported or complained about the FLSA or RICO Claim(s) to any government agency, the identity of each such agency, the date(s) or such reports or complaints, and the outcome or status of each report or complaint.

Response: N/A they didn't understand that they were protected under the law. No posters were ever put on walls so employees could know of their rights. It wasn't until 2022 when Delia's finally put a poster up.

13. If the Plaintiffs reported or complained to the Defendant about any FLSA or RICO Claim(s), and RICO Claims whether the report or complaint was written or oral, when the report or complaint was made, to whom any report or complaint was made, and any response provided by Defendant.

Response: Na, they didn't understand that they were protected under the law.

14. Some plaintiffs were given fake documents by Delia's.
